

Four Maples

Four Maples is a prestigious development in East Freehold, NJ, off Route 79. There are approximately 35 homes in the neighborhood consisting of stately colonial's, ranging in square footage from just under 3,000 square feet to over 4,000 square feet. The models offer open floor plans, two-story foyers, basements, and two or three-car garages. The homes are located on oversized lots with enticing curb appeal and architectural designs and include public utilities. The Four Maples development borders Marlboro Township and offers easy access to major highways, shopping, beaches, The Henry Hudson Trail, and commuting to NYC. Some nearby restaurants include Cuzin's Seafood & Clam Bar, Osteria, and The Fireside Bar and Grill. If you live in the Four Maples Development, your children will attend C.R. Applegate Elementary School, Dwight D. Eisenhower Middle School, and Freehold High School. Freehold High School is one of six schools that comprise the Freehold Regional High School District. The FRHSD is a highly-rated public school allowing students to apply for specialized magnet and International Baccalaureate programs. Four Maples is a highly sought-after community to live in for all that it offers.

