

Saxon Estates

Saxon Estates is a high-end luxury development located in East Freehold off Route 79. These 21 custom-built homes offer sizeable square footage, with the average home consisting of 5400 square feet and lot sizes of an acre or more. The development provides public utilities, pride of ownership is apparent throughout, and you will find that this is one of the most expensive neighborhoods in Freehold Township. Saxon Estates borders Marlboro Township and offers easy access to major highways, shopping, beaches, The Henry Hudson Trail, and commuting to NYC. Some nearby restaurants include Cuzin's Seafood & Clam Bar, Osteria, and The Fireside Bar and Grill. If you live in Saxon Estates your children will attend C.R. Applegate Elementary School, Dwight D. Eisenhower Middle School and Freehold High School. Freehold High School is one of six schools that comprise the Freehold Regional High School District. The FRHSD is a highly-rated public school allowing students to apply for specialized magnet and International Baccalaureate programs. Saxon Estates is a luxury development in East Freehold and offers upscale amenities.

