

Seven Oaks

The homes for sale in the Seven Oaks subdivision range in style and features. Most are single-family homes with expansive footprints spanning 3,400 to 5,000 square feet of living space. Many sit on larger lots, often nearly an acre in size. With four or more bedrooms, luxurious features such as vaulted ceilings, and spacious master suites, these are desirable homes for sale. The area is just a short drive from area amenities such as shops and dining in Freehold. It is a short drive to East Freehold County Park. Easy access to Route 33, 9 and 18 makes commuting easier. If you live in the Seven Oaks development, your children will attend J.J. Catena Elementary School, Dwight D. Eisenhower Middle School, and Freehold High School. Freehold High School is one of six schools that comprise the Freehold Regional High School District. The FRHSD is a highly-rated public school allowing students to apply for specialized magnet and International Baccalaureate programs.
