

Sienna Hills

Sienna Hills is an upscale development located in East Freehold. It is a small community with approximately only nine homes. Located off Dutch Lane Road, the neighborhood has two roads: Verdant Ct. and Grenoble Ct. The homes are stately colonials and feature two-story foyers, a minimum of four bedrooms, basements, and two- to three-car garages. The houses are situated on oversized lots with mature plantings and trees, and all homes offer public water and septic. The location provides easy access to many things. Within a 5-minute car ride, you can enjoy all the fabulous restaurants in downtown Freehold, including The American Hotel, Metropolitan Cafe, and Federicis. You are also close to The Henry Hudson Trail, a 24-mile paved trail where locals love walking, running, and biking. In addition, living in Crowne Pointe, you have easy access to Route 18, which will take you to the beautiful Jersey Shore Beaches and is a convenient way to commute to New York City. If you live in Sienna Hills, your children will attend Joseph J. Elementary School, Dwight D. Eisenhower Middle School, and Freehold High School. Freehold High School is one of six schools that comprise the Freehold Regional High School District. The FRHSD is a highly-rated public school allowing students to apply for specialized magnet and International Baccalaureate programs. Sienna Hills is a prestigious community in East Freehold; however, because it's a small development, homes rarely come on the market for sale. s many of the beautiful nearby parks. If you live in Sheffield Estates, your children will attend C.R. Applegate Elementary School, Dwight D. Eisenhower Middle School, and Freehold High School. Freehold High School is one of six schools that comprise the Freehold Regional High School District. The FRHSD is a highly-rated public school allowing students to apply for specialized magnet and International Baccalaureate programs. Sheffield Estates is a popular development in East Freehold.

