

Tricentennial Crossing

Tricentennial Crossing was built late 90's to mid-2000's by Toll Brothers and offers a range of architectural styles. The community offers expansive homes that average around 3,400 square feet. Living in Tricentennial Crossing offers easy access to Route 9 and 33, shopping, and beaches. IPlay America is close by. Freehold Raceway Mall is only a few minutes to the North, and Walmart and Sam's Club to the west. If you live in the Tricentennial Crossing neighborhood, your children will attend West Freehold Elementary School, Clifton T. Barkalow Middle School, and Freehold High School. Freehold High School is one of six schools that comprise the Freehold Regional High School District. The FRHSD is a highly-rated public school allowing students to apply for specialized magnet and International Baccalaureate programs
