

Four Seasons at Manalapan Crossing

Four Seasons subdivision is a private gated adult community that offers peak luxury, a sense of community, and easy access to everyday necessities at several local shopping centers and malls.

The neighborhood is largely populated by high-end ranch-style, single-family homes that offer fun and comfort-facilitating amenities. The average home size ranges from 1,700-3,200 square feet and are being built by K. Hovnanian in 2023.

The community offers residents beautiful surroundings and plenty of amenities that include an impressive clubhouse for entertaining and a fitness center, tennis courts, indoor swimming pool, driving range, putting green, game rooms and much more. Everyday shopping, dining and entertainment abound in nearby Freehold, easily accessible by Route 33. Close by to Manalapan Crossing is Peking Pavillion, Gus's Diner and Dunkin' Donuts.

