

Monmouth Heights

The Monmouth Heights neighborhood has many single and multi-family residences set on beautifully-landscaped properties. The single and multi-family homes have between 1,500 and 2,600 square feet of space. Their layouts have two to five bedrooms and up to five bathrooms plus entertainment-sized shared living areas. Although they were built from 1967 to 1997, modern features and finishes are the norm, including hardwood flooring.

Monmouth Battlefield State Park is just south of the subdivision which has the Revolutionary War battlefield and trails for outdoor fun. Route 9 is just outside the neighborhood with Starbuck's and the Manalapan Diner just a short drive away.

If you live in Monmouth Heights your children will attend Lafayette Mills Elementary, Manalapan-Englishtown Middle School and Freehold Township High School. Freehold High School is one of six schools that comprise the Freehold Regional High School District. The FRHSD is a highly-rated public school allowing students to apply for specialized magnet and International Baccalaureate programs.
