

Oak Leaf

The Oak Leaf neighborhood has split-level, ranch and colonial style homes that range from 2,000 up to 5,000 square feet. These homes were built in the 1980's and many have been fully renovated to include high end finishes.

Residents enjoy having the easy ability to drive along Gordons Corner Road to have access to a huge variety of shopping, dining and recreational choices. Supermarkets, banks, cafes, restaurants, clothing shops and other destinations are nearby. Parks and golf courses are within easy driving distance.

If you live in Oak Leaf your children will attend Clark Mills Elementary, Manalapan-Englishtown Middle School and Freehold Township High School. Freehold High School is one of six schools that comprise the Freehold Regional High School District. The FRHSD is a highly-rated public school allowing students to apply for specialized magnet and International Baccalaureate programs.
