

Village Grande at Battleground

The Village Grande at Battleground subdivision sits right along the southern edge of the Monmouth Battlefield State Park. This retirement community features gorgeous multi-family homes that were built from 2004 to 2006.

The homes in this community have 3,000 square foot floorplans filled with upscale amenities. They have up to three bathrooms and four bedrooms, including large master suites.

Many residences have sunrooms and lofts as well, plus hardwood flooring throughout the living space. Their gourmet kitchens have stainless steel appliances and granite countertops.

Residents have access to a fully-equipped recreation facility and an outdoor pool. They are also close to the Manasquan Reservoir, Shark River, and Spring Lake. With a trip down New Jersey Route 33, they can reach the Freehold Raceway Mall along with many restaurants and entertainment venues.

