

Village at Battlegrounds

The Village Grand at Battleground active adult community sits right along the southern edge of the Monmouth Battlefield State Park. This intimate neighborhood has 115 homes built from 2004 to 2006. By D.R. Horton. The homes in this community have 3,000 square foot floorplans filled with upscale amenities. Across their layouts, they have up to three bathrooms and four bedrooms, including large master suites. Many residences have sunrooms and lofts as well, plus hardwood flooring throughout the living space. Their gourmet kitchens have stainless steel appliances and granite countertops.

This community contains a tastefully appointed 4,000 square-foot clubhouse, the Grande Club. Inside the Grande Club, residents can stay healthy and energized by utilizing the fully-equipped fitness center. A large multi-purpose room, card room, and kitchen provide plenty of space for socializing. After a morning of activities, the library and billiards area are the perfect place to find rest and relaxation. Outdoor amenities include a pool, patio, shuffleboard court, and putting green. In addition, there are six golf courses within 15 minutes of Village Grande at Battleground.
