

Lexington Estates

The homes in Lexington Estates offer expansive layouts typically ranging from approximately 3,800 to over 5,000 square feet and were primarily built in the early to mid-2000s. Located in Marlboro Township, this upscale neighborhood is known for its stately brick-front colonials, side-entry garages, and impressive two-story designs. Many homes feature grand arched windows, decorative shutters, symmetrical facades, and covered front entries that create strong curb appeal. Most residences offer four to six bedrooms, expansive primary suites, formal living and dining rooms, and large kitchens that open to sun-filled family rooms. Many properties feature finished basements, extended two- or three-car garages, and well-proportioned backyard spaces that are suitable for entertaining or future outdoor enhancements. The neighborhood presents a cohesive architectural feel with well-maintained lawns and a refined suburban atmosphere.

Set on generously sized lots with wide residential streets, Lexington Estates offers an upscale setting while remaining conveniently located near Route 79 and Route 18 for commuting. Shopping centers, restaurants, grocery stores, and everyday conveniences are all within a short drive. NYC is approximately an hour north, and the Jersey Shore beaches are about 30 minutes east. The Marlboro Township school system is well regarded for its strong academic programs, extracurricular opportunities, and supportive community environment.
