

Millponds

The homes in Millponds offer a mix of spacious condominiums and townhomes, typically ranging from approximately 1,500 to 2,000 square feet. Built primarily in the mid-1980s and later updated, many units feature three bedrooms, two bathrooms, open floor plans, fireplaces, eat-in kitchens, and generously sized bedrooms. The community appeals to both homeowners and investors, offering low-maintenance living in a well-established neighborhood.

Located in Marlboro Township, Millponds provides convenient access to major roadways, shopping, dining, and everyday conveniences. Residents enjoy a variety of community amenities, including a pool, basketball and tennis courts, playground, and shared green spaces, along with some private outdoor areas. Its central location also makes commuting to New York City a viable option.

If you live in Millponds, your children will attend Marlboro Township public schools, including Robertsville Elementary School, Marlboro Memorial Middle School, and Marlboro High School. The high school is part of the highly regarded Freehold Regional High School District, offering strong academics and specialized programs.

Click here for blog post and video

